On the Chow ring of K*3* surfaces

Arnaud BEAUVILLE

Abstract

The Chow ring is a basic invariant of algebraic varieties. Despite its simple definition it is a very mysterious object, even for surfaces. The first interesting case is that of K*3* surfaces; we will show that such a surface carries a canonical 0-cycle with some remarkable properties. This is joint work with Claire Voisin.